

2008 Montana Hunting Regulations

Webless Migratory Birds

Mourning Doves, Common (Wilson's) Snipe & Sandhill Cranes

These regulations and final quotas were adopted under the authority granted to the Fish, Wildlife and Parks Commission per MCA, Section 87-1-301 and are valid March 1, 2008, through February 28, 2009. These regulations were adopted by the Montana Fish, Wildlife and Parks Commission on August 5, 2008. M. Jeff Hagener, Director.

License Requirements –

- Check the license chart below for details. Conservation, hunting and fishing licenses are available at all Fish, Wildlife & Parks (FWP) offices, license providers throughout the state and online at fwp.mt.gov or mt.gov. The license is valid March 1 through February of the following year.
- If you were born after January 1, 1985, you are required to show proof of completing a Montana hunter safety and education course, or an approved hunter safety course from any other state or province, prior to applying for or purchasing a hunting license.
- Permit Applications Available Online – Hunters may apply for a sandhill crane special permit online at fwp.mt.gov or mt.gov. Hunters have the option of applying by the deadline at any FWP office or by submitting an application as specified in these regulations.
- Migratory Bird Harvest Information Program (MBHIP) – All migratory bird hunters in Montana, as well as in all other states, are required to take part in a National Harvest Survey Program. To comply with MBHIP, you must complete a survey including your name, address and date of birth before you can purchase your Montana Migratory Bird License. In addition, you will be asked to respond to several questions about your hunting experience during last year's season.

General Information –

Your privacy is important to FWP and the State of Montana. Recent legislation now requires only the last four numbers of your Social Security Number. These numbers are kept confidential by FWP.

Mourning Doves –

- Mourning Dove Wing Collection – Montana is cooperating with the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service in collecting Mourning Dove wings from hunters. Randomly selected hunters will be asked to save one wing from each dove during the first week of the season and mail the wings (postage free) to the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service. Hunters using high-use public areas may also be asked to provide dove wings as part of the monitoring effort. Data from the wings will be used to estimate annual productivity of the dove population, and eventually used in helping to establish hunting regulations.
- Eurasian Collared-Doves are an exotic species. The Montana Fish, Wildlife, and Parks Commission has designated them an unprotected species that may be taken without license, season, or limit. They do not count against a hunter's Mourning Dove limit.
- Eurasian Collared-Doves, an introduced, exotic species are now found throughout much of Montana, especially in and near cities and towns. They differ from a Mourning Dove in that they are larger, have a rounded tail rather than a pointed one, and they have a black ring around the back of the neck. Because they are not a native species, they are not protected under federal regulations.

General Regulations –

It is unlawful to interfere with or hinder the lawful taking of a migratory game bird.

Check Stations – All hunters and anglers are required by law to stop as directed at all designated check stations on their way to and from hunting and fishing areas, even if they have no game or fish to be checked.

Shooting Hours – Authorized shooting hours begin one-half hour before sunrise to sunset each day of the hunting season. See official sunrise-sunset tables in these regulations.

Transporting Webless Birds –

- One fully feathered wing or head must remain attached to each bird (except doves) at all times while being transported from the place where taken to the personal abode of the processor or processing facility.
- No person shall give, put or leave any migratory birds at any place or in custody of another person unless the birds are tagged by the hunter with the following information: 1) the hunter's signature; 2) the hunter's address; 3) the total number of birds involved, by species; 4) the dates such birds were killed. Tagging is required if the birds are being transported by another person for the hunter, or if the birds have been left for cleaning, storage (including temporary storage), shipment or taxidermy services.
- No person shall ship migratory game birds unless the package is marked on the outside with: (1) the name and address of the person sending the birds, (2) the name and address of the person to whom the birds are being sent, and (3) the number of birds, by species, contained in the package.

Wanton Waste – No person shall kill or cripple any migratory game bird without making a reasonable effort to retrieve the bird, and retain it in his/her actual custody, at the place where taken or between that place and either: (1) his/her automobile or principal means of land transportation; or (2) his/her personal abode or temporary or transient place of lodging; or (3) migratory game bird preservation facility; or (4) a post office; or (5) a common carrier facility.

FWP Website – fwp.mt.gov – The FWP website offers a variety of information to help you plan your hunt. You'll find maps, regulations, and links to road reports, weather service sites and other fish, wildlife and parks resources. Also check mt.gov, the official state website, for a wide variety of information on Montana.

Private Land – Montana law requires permission for all hunting on private land. Even if the land is not posted, hunters must have permission from the landowner, lessee, or their agent before hunting on private property. Landowners may grant permission face-to-face, over the phone, in writing, or by posting signs that explain the type of hunting allowed—game species or sex—and under what conditions. Visit fwp.mt.gov and the Interactive Hunt Planner or visit nris.mt.gov/gis for assistance with land ownership.

Hunter Access – It is your responsibility as a hunter in Montana to always know where you are, to know who owns the land, and to know what access restrictions apply. Always carry a map that clearly marks hunting district boundaries, landownership, and travel restrictions. Maps may be obtained at most federal agencies such as U.S. Bureau of Land Management and U.S. Forest Service offices, as well as some sporting goods stores. For more information, visit fwp.mt.gov and the Interactive Hunt Planner.

Block Management – The Block Management program is a cooperative effort among private and some public landowners, FWP, and hunters. Each FWP Region administers the Block Management Areas (BMAs) for its portion of the state. If you are interested in hunting a BMA, contact the regional office in the area you wish to hunt. Regional tabloids listing lands enrolled in the program are available annually on August 15, which is also the earliest date to reserve access to a BMA. For general information about block management, contact FWP at 406-444-2602.

Railroad Access – Railroads and railroad right-of-ways are private property and may not be hunted without permission, nor should they be used as access to other lands (private or public) without explicit permission from the railroad. Consult the individual railroad for details.

Public Land –

- National Parks are closed to hunting.
- National Wildlife Refuge lands are closed except those areas designated open to public hunting. For hunting opportunities on National Wildlife Refuges, or Federal Waterfowl Production Areas, inquire at the local refuge office.
- For hunting opportunities on federal lands, such as U.S. Forest Service or U.S. Bureau of Land Management, inquire at the local federal office.
- Access to public lands through private land requires permission of the private landowner, lessee, or their agent.

State School Trust Lands – A $2 fee, paid when you purchase your conservation license, provides hunters, anglers and trappers access to legally accessible State School Trust Lands. Trappers still need to secure a "Special State Lands Recreational Use License" from the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC), usually at no additional charge. Other recreational activities such as hiking and bird watching still require the $10 fee. Information regarding the rules and regulations on state lands is available from FWP or contact DNRC at 406-444-2074.

State Game Preserves – State game preserves may or may not be open to limited hunting. Consult regional FWP offices.

Tribal Lands –

- Hunters hunting migratory birds on Indian Reservations should check Indian Reservation regulations because season dates, bag limits, licensing requirements, shooting hours, legal species and shot shell requirements may differ from state regulations.
- The State of Montana and the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes have entered into a cooperative management agreement on the Flathead Reservation. Please check for migratory bird regulations specific to the Flathead Reservation. For information call FWP at 406-752-5501 or the Tribes at 406-675-2700.

Methods and Prohibited Methods of Taking –

- Migratory birds may be taken only with long, recurve or compound bow and arrow; or shotgun not larger than ten gauge, incapable of holding more than three shells, fired from the shoulder.
- Non-Toxic Shot (NTS) – NTS is not required for webless migratory birds, except on national wildlife refuges and waterfowl production areas. However, it is unlawful for anyone to use or possess a shotgun shell or ammunition loaded with or containing other than federally approved non-toxic shot while hunting, taking or attempting to take ducks, geese, swans or coots. If hunters have specific questions regarding this regulation, please inquire at the local refuge office.
- Use of any electronic or phonographic waterfowl-calling device is illegal, as are live decoys.
- It is unlawful for anyone to hunt or attempt to hunt any game animal or game bird on, from, or across any public highway or the shoulder, berm, barrow pit or right-of-way of any public highway (the entire width between the boundary lines of every publicly maintained way when any part thereof is open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel, in the State of Montana, MCA 61-1-202).
- Migratory birds may not be taken from, or by means, or aid of, or use of, a sinkbox, aircraft, motor vehicle, motorboat, sailboat or motor-driven conveyance of any kind, except a motorboat or sailboat if you shut the motor off or furl the sail and the vessel is no longer in motion.
- No person shall take migratory birds by driving, rallying or chasing birds with any motorized conveyance or any sailboat to put them in range of the hunter; or by the aid of baiting (placing feed such as corn, wheat, salt or other feed to constitute a lure or enticement). Hunters should be aware that a baited area is considered to be baited 10 days after the removal of the bait, and it is not necessary for the hunter to know an area is baited to be in violation.
- Possession of Live Birds – Wounded birds reduced to possession shall be immediately killed and included in the daily bag limit.

Avian Influenza

National Early Detection Effort

- Avian influenza, or bird flu, is a common viral infection of wild birds, including waterfowl and shorebirds that rarely is passed on to people.
- Several years ago, a virulent form of bird flu—Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (H5N1)—emerged to sicken and kill domestic poultry in Asia, Africa and Europe.
- Montana Wildlife officials are contributing to the national effort to detect the possible arrival of the virulent strain of bird flu that could be brought to North America via migrating waterfowl.
- Part of that effort includes getting help from hunters by collecting samples from harvested waterfowl through routine hunter game checks.
- H5N1 is primarily a disease of birds, not humans. Should H5N1 be detected anywhere in North America, it would not signal the start of a human health crisis.

Common Sense Precautions

- Viruses like H5N1 are shed from birds in fecal material and other body fluids; so avoid contact with these materials while plucking and cleaning birds.
- Do not harvest or handle wildlife that is obviously sick or found dead.
- Wear rubber gloves while cleaning game.
- Do not eat, drink or smoke while cleaning game.
- Wash hands with soap and water or alcohol wipes after handling game.
- Wash tools and work surfaces used to clean game with soap and water, then disinfect with a 10 percent solution of chlorine bleach—one part chlorine to 10 parts water.
- Separate raw meat, and anything it touches, from cooked or ready-to-eat foods to avoid contamination.
- Cook game meat thoroughly, to an internal temperature of at least 165 degrees Fahrenheit.
